

EHPS WEEKLY BULLETIN

ISSUE No: 14 FRIDAY 15 DECEMBER 2017

Dear Parents,

It has been lovely coming back to school after my knee operation and seeing the fantastic Christmas Nativities and plays. Last night's Christmas concert in the church was as wonderful as ever, with the choirs, musicians and narrators all doing a great job. Thanks to all of the staff for the hard work they have put in to all of the plays and productions leading up to Christmas.

This morning I had a very tough job judging the Christmas baubles – they were all brilliant! The first job is hiding the name tags so I can truly judge them without knowing who did them! I would love to give a prize to every child who enters but the Friends are very good at giving lots of extra 'runners up' prizes. The winning baubles are displayed in the entrance (and on page 2 of this bulletin) and the runners-up are on the tree outside my office, along with any entries from Years 4 - 6. All of the other wonderful baubles from Year R,1,2 and 3 are on the Christmas tree outside the small hall. Thank you to everyone who made the effort to decorate a bauble.

Three and a half days left to get your Christmas shopping finished while your little darlings are at school! We finish at 1pm on Thursday!

Best wishes,

Mrs Megan Robinson

Headteacher

VANDALISM IN SCHOOL GROUNDS

Sadly we have to report that we had youths in the school grounds one evening last week, causing minimal damage but maximum aggravation.

The police are involved and we have handed over CCTV footage to them in the hope that these trespassers can be cautioned.

If you have any information or if you see anyone in the school grounds over the Christmas break, please do call 101.

We will be adding a link to our website over the Christmas break:

www.ehps.hants.sch.uk/school-community/Pabulum – where you will be able find our school's menu and a link to Pabulum's own website.

The Parish Council have advised us that due to the 'Live Nativity and Carols in the Key' event there will be a road closure in effect on Saturday 16 December from 3.30pm to 7.00pm.

During these hours the Key will be closed from the De Havilland Arms car park to the bollards in Wintney Street.

The event, which takes place in the Key, starts at 4.30pm and there will be mulled wine and mince pies at the end.

Everyone is welcome, it will be a great family event!
